Speaker: Elaine Froese is a certified farm family business coach (CHICoach) who helps farm families address and act on tough communication issues. She is a mediator and a member of the Canadian Association of Farm Advisors (CAFA). Elaine farms in southwestern Manitoba and is a prolific writer and widely respected speaker across Canada on topics of interest to the majority of farm businesses. You can view her work at www.elainefroese.com and on You Tube by searching for 'farm family coach'. Elaine has received nationwide exposure on Ag Vision TV as the succession expert.

Seminar: Elaine will address a broad range of issues and problems that young producers are commonly confronted with pertaining to family business and discussions surrounding succession planning. Through her trademark open and interactive approach with her audience, Elaine will share a number of practical tools and guidelines for initiating discussions on the topic of succession planning and communications in farm family businesses.

Offer: Elaine encourages any producer planning to attend this evening seminar to come with other family members and be prepared for a lively, interactive presentation. She also suggests that producers visit her website www.elainefroese.com prior to the seminar and submit specific questions that they would like addressed. In addition, Elaine is also offering to 'every producer in attendance' a free 30-minute telephone consultation after the seminar.

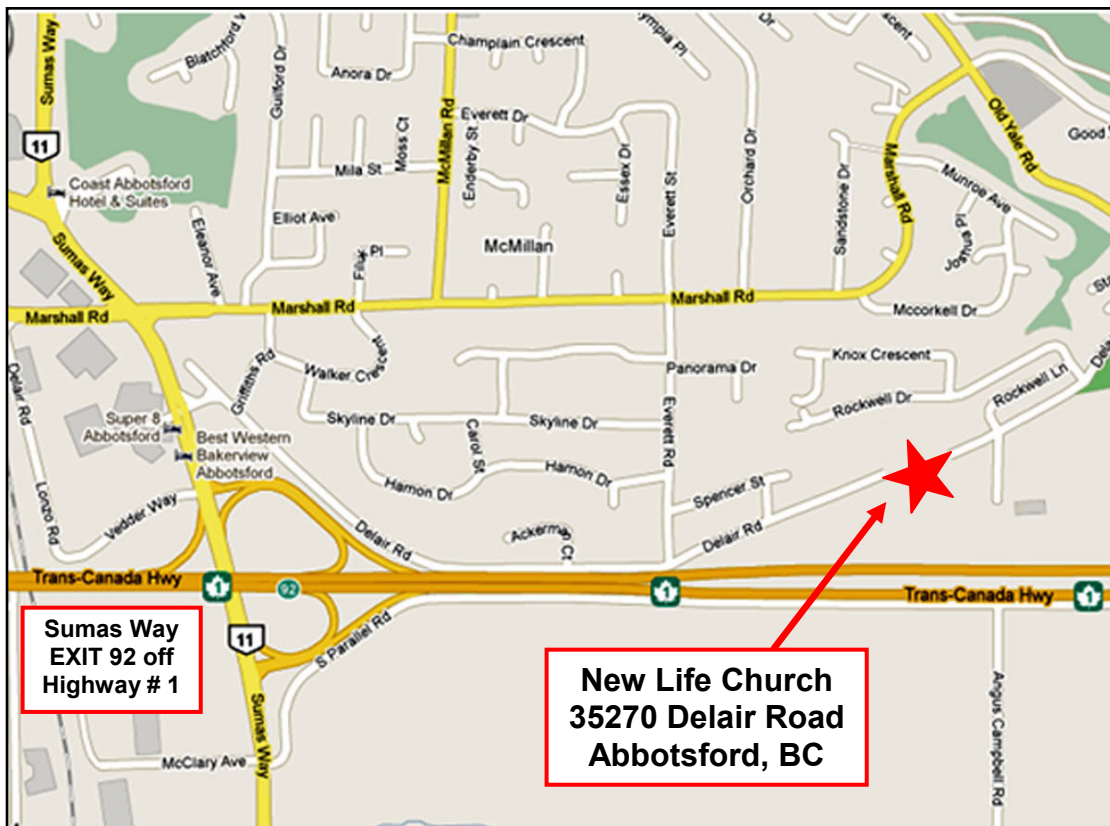

Some valuable Door Prizes have been donated for this event.
